U. S. EMPLOYEES ATTACK POLICY OF SEC. DENBY

National Federation of Federal Workers Praise Hays and Carter.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 16.—Condemnation of the Secretary of the Navy and praise for the employment policies of Postmaster General Hays and Public Printer Carter featured the opening hours of the morning session of the convention of the National Federation of Federal Employees here yesterday.

Mr. Denby's attitude in refusing to hear argument for revision of the award was bitterly condemned by Navy Yard delegates.

The award of the wage board was held to be inconsistent by President

Luther C. Steward. "Still clerical workers," said Mr. Steward, "of many years' experience are given lower wages than the award grants to unskilled laborers. In one paragraph, Mr. Denby says it is not decent to pay American citizens less than 41 cents an hour; in the next paragraph he proceeds to pay skilled workers much less." The national officers were instructed by the convention to lay the matter not only before the President, but before Congress.

A proposal to hold conventions every two years hereafter as an economy measure was voted down. A similar fate was encountered by a proposal to make Washington the permanent convention city.

MAN THREATENS TO SHOOT FATTY ON SIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 16.—Harry Kelly, secretary of the county grand jury, today made public a letter received by him by special delivery from Sacramento, in which it is declared by the writer that "if justice is not done," he will "shoot on sight" Roscoe "Patty" Arbuckle.

The writer describes himself in the letter as a relative of Virginia Rappe, with causing whose death Arbuckle stands charged.

SON THINKS DAD IS TOO 'YOUNG' TO HAVE MONEY

"Gay Boy" of 78, Who Spent $100,000, Admits He Likes "the Girls."

BALTIMORE, Sept. 16.—Frederick Wilcox, seventy-eight years old, 138 Mosher street, has been a "gay boy" in his time, according to testimony in the criminal court, where he appeared to prosecute his son, Frederick W. Wilcox, under the indignant parent law.

The testimony showed that the old man, who looked his age, was worth between $75,000 and $100,000 about ten years ago, when he conducted a prosperous bakery on Biddle street and had thousands of dollars in the bank.

He admitted that he was "fond of the ladies" and that all his money had vanished. He is living with his third wife.

"Just put some money in his pocket," his son said to Judge Duffy, "and you will see the youngest old man you ever beheld."

The son, who is in the real estate business, expressed his willingness to contribute to his father's support, but he said he was not willing to give his father money, for fear it would be squandered.

Judge Duffy ordered him to contribute $20 a month toward his father's support, but that the money should be paid to the old man's wife through the Prisoners' Aid Association. William H. Pairo was attorney for the son.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS SHOW "STYLES" AT CONVENTION

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Sept. 16.—With a private burying ground the only thing lacking, the New Jersey State Funeral Directors' Association is having its annual convention in the Hotel Brunswick.

In connection with the meetings a display of all the latest luxurious equipment of the modern mortician is being shown. Other hotel guests do not seem to mind the side couch suggestions or silver-plated reminders of the inevitable.

MEAX, France, Sept. 16.—Burglars who secured less than $1 worth of booty for their vandalism smashed one of the priceless stained-glass windows in the 800-year-old Cathedral of St. Etienne here to gain entrance to the edifice.

They rifled seven poorboxes, the contents of which had been collected during the evening, obtaining, it is estimated, not more than 10 francs all told.

TWINS FOUND IN SUITCASE ON DETROIT FERRY BOAT

DETROIT, Sept. 16.—Feeble cries emanating from a locked suitcase on the upper deck of one of the Detroit Windsor ferry steamers late yesterday led to the discovery of twin baby girls several weeks old.

Police are searching for a woman who brought the suitcase aboard and, they declare, apparently abandoned the babies. The infants were taken to a hospital, where they were reported out of danger.

The Democratic women of Chevy Chase and vicinity have organized themselves into a club with a large membership and the following officers: President, Mrs. Jesse W. Nicholson; first vice president, Mrs. B. Ashby Leavell; second vice president, Mrs. Estelle Weaver; third vice president, Mrs. E. L. Pugh; secretary, Miss Laura Gilliland; treasurer, Mrs. J. The club will meet once a month in the Chevy Chase library. The supervisors of elections—Laurenson B. Riggs, J. Furr White, and Mortimer O. Stabler—met here yesterday afternoon and, after organizing as a board of canvassers by electing Mr. Riggs chairman and Mr. White secretary, canvassed the vote cast in this county at last Friday's Democratic and Republican primary elections.

The official count showed no material changes in the vote as unofficially reported. State Senator Willis B. Burdette, for the Republican nomination for clerk of the circuit court, received 88 votes to 231 given Clifton Dronenburg, his only opponent, his majority being 527.

The board issued certificates of nomination to all successful candidates, including those who had no opposition.

MAN AND WOMAN INDICTED IN CAPE MAY KIDNAPING

Two indictments of the same character were returned against Beulah Woodland. The alleged kidnapping took place in Cape May July 7.

After being frustrated twice in attempts to lure the children away, the police say, Woodland and the woman stole Jack, three years old, and Margaret, two children of Mrs. Florence Woodland. Two strangers, Mr. and Mrs. James, with whom Mrs. Woodland had become intimate, disappeared at the same time as the children.
